

UC DAVIS
WASHINGTON PROGRAM

EXPLORING CAREERS IN GLOBAL & & INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

THE GROVE ROOM 1360

January 14, 2019

2:10 PM – 3:00 PM

Jolynn Shoemaker

Director, UC Davis Global Affairs

Join Jolynn Shoemaker as she talks about how to maximize your internship and time in DC. Jolynn worked in the foreign policy and national security arena for almost 20 years. She spent 18 years in Washington DC in policy, legal and advocacy positions. She has served in a variety of advisory and consultant roles for NGOs, and she led a global organization supporting women's participation and gender equality in international peace and security careers. She was a policy analyst and attorney in the Office of the Secretary of Defense, and a foreign affairs officer focusing on human rights in Africa at the U.S. Department of State. She holds a J.D. and an M.A. (Security Studies) from Georgetown University and a B.A. from University of California, San Diego